Meet Your Subject Librarian
Your subject librarian knows the entire collection of databases, journals, and books in your field. She or he can meet with you for a personal consultation or answer your questions by email or phone. Also, your subject librarian buys academic books in your field, so if you need an item for your research, just ask!

See the list: www.uflib.ufl.edu/SubjectSpecialists

Places to Study
Most of the library branches have group study and collaboration spaces. Library West has a study floor for graduate students only!

Checking out Books
Graduate students can check out up to 250 books at a time for 8 weeks! If we don’t have the book or article you need, we can get it for you through interlibrary loan.

Course Reserves
If you teach, you may reserve print and electronic items for your classes through Ares, the online course reserves system.

Citation Management
As a student, you have free access to RefWorks and EndNote. These programs make it easy to store all your citations and construct bibliographies.

Want to Learn More?
Free workshops are available year round. Learn about open access, copyright basics, using the institutional repository, data management, and more!
